

Rest Centres

In some emergencies the safest action is to stay inside, but if the emergency services think it is safer to evacuate, the police will clear the area. Mid Sussex District Council will normally provide accommodation for people made temporarily homeless, often by opening a rest centre. This is for those needing a safe place for 12-24 hours. Anything longer than this, Mid Sussex District Council will arrange short term accommodation in hotels or assisting those affected to get to homes of relatives or friends.

Worth Parish Council will adopt the rest centres identified by Mid Sussex District Council.
